Vinification: This powerful red wine from France is vinified from Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot grapes. The grapes grow under optimal conditions in Bordeaux. The vines here dig their roots deep into soils of clay and limestone. Clearly, the Mouton Cadet Réserve Margaux is also determined by climatic and stylistic factors Margaux. This Frenchman can be called an Old World wine in the best sense of the word, which is extraordinarily impressive. After the grape harvest, the grapes arrive at the winery by the fastest route. Here they are selected and carefully broken up. Then fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks and small wood at controlled temperatures. After its end, the Mouton Cadet Réserve Margaux can further harmonize for 18 months on the fine lees..

Appearance: A deep garnet red with a blackcurrant hue.

Bouquet: The nose opens on ripe red and black fruit aromas, especially Burlat cherry and blackcurrant, then with airing goes on to reveal delicate toast and black pepper notes.

Palate: The generous attack coats the palate with powerful black fruit flavours, while the mid-palate expresses subtle mocha and mild spice notes, joined by elegant touches of vanilla on the silky finish.
